Come to One, Come to All

The Team needs you

We have a duty to perform

Wake Up! Let's Get Busy

TUNE—"America."

1. God bless dear old R. C.
Help them play ball to-day,
Play ball to-day
While on the field they roll,
Striving with heart and soul,
God help them to gain the goal,
To-o-o gain the goal.

2. Protect them by thy might,
Keep them through all the fight,
The Red and Blue.
Help them roll up a score
Higher than e'er before,
Help them roll up the score
For old R. C.

3. Oh! long may our colors wave
Over your head, so brave,
Dear old R. C.
And may they never die,
But always wave on high,
Oh! may they forever fly,
The Red and Blue.

TUNE—"In the Good Old Summer Time."

1. There's a time in the school year
That we all do hold dear ;
 'Tis the good old foot-ball time,
With the boys in great glee,
Like a bird in the tree,
 'Tis the good old foot-ball time,

CHORUS—

- 'Tis the good old foot ball time,
'Tis the good old foot-ball time,
Making plunges, striking lines
 With our team, so fine ;
We hold our own, while they lose out,
 Well, that's a very good sign,
That we are going to win this game
 In the good old foot-ball time.
2. When the season is o'er,
And we think of the score
 In the good old foot-ball time,
We will yell for old WRIGHT,
Who led in the fight,
 In the good old foot-ball time.

CHORUS

P. M. Petty, '11

TUNE—"Wait Till the Sun Shines, Nellie."

Randolph Macon's line is breaking
 And our Backs go plunging through
 Down the field a-hiking goes the Red and Blue
 Down towards your goal we'll ramble
 For a sure touch-down,
 Till we lick those old Biblets
 From Ashland town

TUNE—"Smarty."

Looney, Looney, Looney,
 Thought you'd hike it through me ;
 Don't forget that you can't play ball,
 We'll beat you worse than we did last fall.
 You're up against a strong line,
 So try it if you dare ;
 You're nothing but a lunatic,
 So there, there, there.

"Tip," '10

TUNE—"Mr. Johnson, Shame on You."

Randolph-Macon, shame on you,
 You can't hike your full back through ;
 You may fool us now and then,
 But you can't gain an inch around our end.
 We know what we are talking about,
 We want the folks to find you out,
 Then we'll all stand up and shout,
 "Shame on you !"

AN APPEAL

FELLOWS :—

The foot-ball season is just beginning. Richmond College has a team on the field to represent her in the coming struggles. What will her record be at the end of the season? How many games won? How many lost? Where will the cup be nestling? You will say that no one can tell. Granted.

While we do not know the answers to the queries, yet we do know that we have a good team to do our fighting for us. They are each and all big, husky fellows, imbued with the determination to do or die. They are ready to shed blood for Richmond College, if necessary. They are, in every way, worthy of their institution. Why, then, should we not win consistently? Right here, men, lies the key to the situation.

Our opponents, also, have good, strong teams, and a great deal besides. They have large bands of organized backers. Each man of them is brimful of love and enthusiasm for his college, and when they gather on the stand, truly there is something doing.

Now what is gained by their spirited songs and yells? Just this. Each member of their team feels that it devolves upon him to give the rooters what they are yearning for—Victory. Consequently, they go into the game with a snap and dash that will have to be met by a little more snap and dash before they will be checked.

Fellows, it is going to be our men who will be called upon to stop the furious onslaught of the enemy. Will they have more science than the other fellows? Yes. Remember that E. A. DUNLAP is coaching our boys. Will they have as much snap, ginger, and determination as the other team? Yes. I say this because it lies greatly with us whether they will have the latter qualities, and I have confidence in you. You have proved your spirit by your aid given me already. Keep it up, fellows, stick together till the referee's whistle has ended the last game of the season. I ask you to do this for Richmond College, for the team, for Dunlap, for Wright, and for yourselves. The result will be worth the pains, the percentage column will be heavier on the won side than on the lost, and the cup will be in the glass case in the library in Ryland Hall at Richmond College.
